

An extraordinary marionette show from across the world for children ages 4 and up

Amar Singh Rathor

A legend comes to life in this internationally renowned play about a brave and proud warrior on a quest for freedom.

Don't miss this one of a kind opportunity to see a master puppeteer and musicians, coming to us directly from New Delhi, India!

This performance does not use language but rather tableaux, traditional Indian music and magnificent puppetry techniques to tell the story.

Also join us for an exciting workshop right after the performance that will engage children in the art of puppetry.
Only an additional $2/child.
